

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY 2021

Introduction

This document is the Child Protection Policy for Alliance Française d'Oxford, which will be followed by all members of the organisation and followed and promoted by those in the position of leadership within the organisation.

The purposes of the Alliance française d'Oxford

1. to advance the education of the general public in the subject of the French Language and French culture in Oxford and the surrounding area;
2. to bring together those who desire to contribute towards the understanding and enjoyment of French culture and language;
3. to foster greater mutual understanding between England and France by encouraging linguistic and cultural interactions.

The purpose of this policy

We know that being a young person makes them vulnerable to abuse by adults. The purpose of this policy is to make sure that the actions of any adult in the context of the activities carried out by the organisation are transparent and safeguard and promote the welfare of all young people.

Legal framework

This policy has been drawn up on the basis of law and guidance that seeks to protect children, namely:

- Children Act 1989
- United Convention of the Rights of the Child 1991
- Data Protection Act 1998
- Sexual Offences Act 2003
- Children Act 2004
- Protection of Freedoms Act 2012
- Relevant government guidance on safeguarding children

We recognise that

- the welfare of the child is paramount, as enshrined in the Children Act 1989
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have a right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- adopting child protection practices through procedures and a code of conduct for staff and volunteers
- developing and implementing an effective e-safety policy and related procedures
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training
- recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks, including DBS checks, are made
- sharing information about child protection and good practice with children, parents, staff and volunteers
- sharing concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately.

General terms of our code of conduct for online classes

The Alliance française d'Oxford provides a service to the public by allowing children and adolescents to access its classes. Persons under 18 years of age must be supervised by a parent or guardian, who must ensure the following:

- The child understands that although they are at home, they must behave in a manner similar to what would be expected at school, in terms of behaviour, appropriate language, and respect for teachers and classmates.
- The child's image will be visible to the teacher and other students: they must be appropriately dressed, attend the online classroom from a location where the parent can maintain supervision, and ensure that the background to their image is reasonably neutral and that no items or elements appear in the image which violate their privacy or could offend other participants.
- All other householders should be aware that the child is in an online classroom and should try to avoid appearing in the image or the audio.
- Children should be aware that they are in public and should observe basic internet safety guidelines: they should not share personal information such as their address or social media profile information. The teacher will at no point request this information.
- Microphones and cameras should be disabled once the class has concluded and during break times.

Supervision during Class:

The teacher in charge of the class will record student attendance and will directly supervise students for most of the duration of the scheduled class as long as they remain in the online classroom. The parent/guardian will receive an email notification from the Alliance in the event that their child does not attend class or attends only a portion of their class.

The safeguarding lead and the administrative team will have access to the online classroom and will check in on the classes periodically, like they would in a school-based class.

Although they may not take part in the class, parents/carers should also feel free to sit in with the students or observe periodically if they like, just as they would with a tutor visiting their home.

A "record" function is available within the educational software to the classroom moderator (teacher) – for privacy and data protection reasons we will not be using this function.

When downloading the software, to protect the child's privacy, we recommend that parents use their own contact details, and not the child's. Children should feel free to write their first name only when entering the classroom, but must use their real first name so that they can be identified by the teacher. Your teacher will send a meeting link by email, which you should not share, since it could allow unauthorised persons to temporarily enter the classroom.

Where we have a concern about a child, we will follow this up using our safeguarding framework (the teacher will consult with the safeguarding lead and they will decide together on an appropriate course of action). If we do have any concerns, you can expect that we will communicate with you or report to the relevant authorities as necessary.

Communication outside class:

A parent and child may decide whether the teacher may use the child's email address to send class materials such as exercises, the classroom link and the class plan. If they do use the child's address, they will place the parent in copy in all communications. Otherwise, the teacher will communicate materials directly with the parent by email.

CHILD PROTECTION PROCEDURE

Purpose and aim of the procedures

This procedure applies to everyone who works or volunteers for Alliance Française d'Oxford. Abuse or neglect of a child is caused by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting, by those known to them or more rarely by a stranger.

Recognizing signs of abuse

Signs of abuse can be physical, emotional, sexual abuse, and neglect.

Individuals within the organisation need to be alert to the potential abuse of children both within their families and also from other sources including abuse by members of that organisation.

The organisation should know how to recognise and act upon indicators of abuse or potential abuse involving children. There is an expected responsibility for all members of the organisation to respond to any suspected or actual abuse of a child in accordance with these procedures.

These can include:

- A child may be experiencing abuse if he or she is:
- frequently dirty, hungry or inadequately dressed
- left in unsafe situations or without medical attention
- constantly "put down", insulted, sworn at or humiliated
- seems afraid of parents or carers
- severely bruised or injured
- displays sexual behaviour which doesn't seem appropriate for their age
- growing up in a home where there is domestic violence
- living with parents or carers involved in serious drug or alcohol abuse.

It is good practice to be as open and honest as possible with parents/carers about any concerns.

How to respond to signs or suspicions of abuse

Immediate action may be necessary at any stage in involvement with children and families. If any parent or young person/child has any concerns about the conduct of any member of the organisation, this should be raised in the first instance with Isabelle Barber isabelle.barber@rhodeshouse.ox.ac.uk, tel: 01865 282 599 or 01865 270 908.

IN ALL CASES IT IS VITAL TO TAKE WHATEVER ACTION IS NEEDED TO SAFEGUARD THE CHILD/REN ie:

If emergency medical attention is required this can be secured by calling an ambulance (dial 999) or taking a child to the nearest Accident and Emergency Department.

If a child is in immediate danger the police should be contacted (dial 999) as they alone have the power to remove a child immediately if protection is necessary, via Police Protection Order.

How to respond to a child telling you about abuse

It is recognised that a child may seek you out to share information about abuse or neglect, or talk spontaneously individually or in groups when you are present. In these situations you must:

Listen carefully to the child. DO NOT directly question the child.

- Give the child time and attention.
- Allow the child to give a spontaneous account; do not stop a child who is freely recalling significant events.
- Make an accurate record of the information you have been given taking care to record the timing, setting and people present, the child's presentation as well as what was said. Do not throw this away as it may later be needed as evidence.
- Use the child's own words where possible.

- Explain that you cannot promise not to speak to others about the information they have shared.
- Reassure the child that:
- you are glad they have told you;
- they have not done anything wrong;
- what you are going to do next.
- Explain that you will need to get help to keep the child safe.
- Do NOT ask the child to repeat his or her account of events to anyone.

Consulting about your concern

The purpose of consultation is to discuss your concerns in relation to a child and decide what action is necessary.

You may become concerned about a child who has not spoken to you, because of your observations of, or information about that child.

It is good practice to ask a child why they are upset or how a cut or bruise was caused, or respond to a child wanting to talk to you. This practice can help clarify vague concerns and result in appropriate action.

If you are concerned about a child you must share your concerns. Initially you should talk to one of the people designated as responsible for child protection within your organisation. In this organisation this person is Isabelle Barber, isabelle.barber@rhodeshouse.ox.ac.uk tel: 01865 282 599 or 01865 270 908. If one of those people is implicated in the concerns you should discuss your concerns directly with Social Services.

You should consult externally with your local Social Services Department in the following circumstances:

- when you remain unsure after internal consultation as to whether child protection concerns exist
- when there is disagreement as to whether child protection concerns exist
- when you are unable to consult promptly or at all with your designated internal contact for child protection
- when the concerns relate to any member of the organising committee.

Consultation is not the same as making a referral but should enable a decision to be made as to whether a referral to Social Services or the Police should progress.

Making a referral

A referral involves giving Social Services or the Police information about concerns relating to an individual or family in order that enquiries can be undertaken by the appropriate agency followed by any necessary action.

In certain cases the level of concern will lead straight to a referral without external consultation being necessary.

Parents/carers should be informed if a referral is being made.

However, inability to inform parents for any reason should not prevent a referral being made. It would then become a joint decision with Social Services about how and when the parents should be approached and by whom.

If your concern is about abuse or risk of abuse from someone not known to the child or child's family, you should make a telephone referral directly to the police and consult with the parents.

If your concern is about abuse or risk of abuse from a family member or someone known to the children, you should make a telephone referral to your local Social Services Office.

Information required

Be prepared to give as much of the following information as possible (in emergency situations all of this information may not be available). Unavailability of some information should not stop you making a referral.

- Your name, telephone number, position and request the same of the person to whom you are speaking.
- Full name and address, telephone number of family, date of birth of child and siblings.
- Gender, ethnicity, first language, any special needs.
- Names, dates of birth and relationship of household members and any significant others.
- The names of professionals known to be involved with the child/family eg: GP, Health Visitor, School.
- The nature of the concern; and foundation for them.
- An opinion on whether the child may need urgent action to make them safe.
- Your view of what appears to be the needs of the child and family.
- Whether the consent of a parent with parental responsibility has been given to the referral being made.

Action to be taken following the referral

Ensure that you keep an accurate record of your concern(s) made at the time.

Put your concerns in writing to Social Services following the referral (within 48 hours).

Accurately record the action agreed or that no further action is to be taken and the reasons for this decision.

Confidentiality policy

The organisation should ensure that any records made in relation to a referral will be kept confidentially and in a secure place. Information in relation to child protection concerns should be shared on a “need to know” basis. However, the sharing of information is vital to child protection and, therefore, the issue of confidentiality is secondary to a child’s need for protection.

Abuse is always wrong and it is never the young person's fault. If you're worried about a child, please call the NSPCC Helpline on 0800 800 5000 for advice.

This policy is implemented through will be reviewed and updated at every AGM. September 2020

The Alliance française d'Oxford uses of your personal data (see section on Your Rights below) and endeavours to ensure that all personal data is processed in compliance with this policy and data protection law.

Anyone who works for, or acts on behalf of, the Alliance française d'Oxford (including staff, volunteers, trustees and service providers) must also be aware of and is required to comply with this Privacy Notice.

WHY THE ALLIANCE FRANCAISE D'OXFORD NEEDS TO PROCESS PERSONAL DATA

In order to carry out our ordinary activities, we need to process a wide range of personal data about individuals (including current, past and prospective staff, students or parents of students) as part of our daily operation.

TYPES OF PERSONAL DATA PROCESSED BY THE ALLIANCE FRANCAISE D'OXFORD

There are various legal grounds on which we are permitted to process personal data:

- Processing necessary to enter into a contract with you, or for the performance of the contract
- Processing necessary to comply with our legal obligations
- Processing necessary for our (or a third party's) legitimate interests, such as managing and administering our activities effectively
- Where you have given specific consent to processing your data – in which case we will ask specifically if you consent to the particular processing.

The types of personal data we process, what we use the data for, and our legal grounds for processing differ depending on our relationship with the individual in question.

For students and their parents/guardians – please see further detail in Appendix 1.

For staff, teachers and contractors – please see further detail in Appendix 2.

For mailing list subscribers and attendees at our events – please see further detail in Appendix 3.

However, in some cases personal data will be supplied by third parties (for example another school, or other professionals or authorities working with that individual); or collected from publicly available sources.

WHO HAS ACCESS TO YOUR DATA

The only people able to access data covered by this Policy will be those who need it in order to administer the activities of the Alliance française d'Oxford.

We do not share personal data with third parties.

- Teachers are given email addresses of students and telephone numbers for normal communication of homework and progression. Teachers are required to delete email addresses and other personal data as soon as their contractual arrangements with the Alliance française d'Oxford come to an end or they cease to teach the student(s) in question.
- The Manager as person responsible for data protection should be contacted by the teachers about any aspect of data protection.

Some of Alliance française d'Oxford processing activity is carried out on its behalf by third parties, such as IT systems, web developers or cloud storage providers (e.g. Dropbox, Intuit Quickbooks, Mailchimp, Colour Rich, Rosemary Accounting). Where this involves a transfer of data outside the EEA, appropriate steps will be taken to safeguard the data (eg for data processing by external providers in the USA, Alliance française d'Oxford has verified that those providers have signed up to the Privacy Shield.) Please refer to the privacy notices of the providers referred to above for further details.

This is likely to include file notes on personnel or safeguarding files, and in some cases referrals to relevant authorities such as the police.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR DATA?

We will retain personal data securely and only in line with how long it is necessary to keep for a legitimate and lawful reason. Typically, we will keep ordinary staff and student records for up to 7 years following departure from the Alliance française d'Oxford. However, incident reports and safeguarding files will need to be kept much longer, in accordance with specific legal requirements.

If you have any specific queries about how our retention policy is applied, or wish to request that personal data that you no longer believe to be relevant is considered for erasure, please contact the Manager, who is the appointed person responsible for overseeing data protection at the school. However, please bear in mind that we may have lawful and necessary reasons to retain some personal data even following such a request.

The school will from time to time use the contact details of former staff, alumni and their parents as well as other members of the school community to keep them updated about the activities of the school, or alumni and parent events of interest, including by sending updates and newsletters and by email.

Should you wish to limit or object to any such use, or would like further information about them, please contact the Manager in writing. You always have the right to withdraw consent, where given, or otherwise object to direct marketing or fundraising. However, the school is nonetheless likely to retain some of your details (not least to ensure that no more communications are sent to that particular address, email or telephone number).

The Alliance française d'Oxford will take appropriate technical and organisational steps to ensure the security of personal data about individuals, including policies relating to use of technology and devices, and access to our systems. Publicised Contact Details for Complaints

trustees@af-oxford.org

Receiving Complaints

Stage One

In many cases, a complaint is best resolved by the person responsible for the issue being complained about. If the complaint has been received by that person, they may be able to resolve it swiftly and should do so if possible and appropriate. Whether or not the complaint has been resolved, the complaint information should be passed to The Secretary within two weeks. On receiving the complaint, The Secretary will record it in the complaints log. If it has not already been resolved, they delegate an appropriate person to investigate it and to take appropriate action. If the complaint relates to a specific person, they should be informed and given a fair opportunity to respond. Complaints should be acknowledged by the person handling the complaint within a week. The acknowledgement should say who is dealing with the complaint and when the person complaining can expect a reply. A copy of this complaints procedure should be attached.

Ideally complainants should receive a definitive reply within four weeks. If this is not possible because for example, an investigation has not been fully completed, a progress report should be sent with an indication of when a full reply will be given. Whether the complaint is justified or not, the reply to the complainant should describe the action taken to investigate the complaint, the conclusions from the investigation, and any action taken as a result of the complaint.

Stage Two

If the complainant feels that the problem has not been satisfactorily resolved at Stage One, they can request that the complaint is reviewed at Board level. At this stage, the complaint will be passed to the Chairman :

Isabelle Barber

Chairman of the board of trustees

Rhodes House South Parks Road

Oxford, OX1

The request for Board level review should be acknowledged within a week of receiving it. The acknowledgement should say who will deal with the case and when the complainant can expect a reply.

The Chairman of the trustees may investigate the facts of the case themselves or delegate a suitably senior person to do so. This may involve reviewing the paperwork of the case and speaking with the person who dealt with the complaint at Stage One.

If the complaint relates to a specific person, they should be informed and given a further opportunity to respond.

The person who dealt with the original complaint at Stage One should be kept informed of what is happening.

Ideally complainants should receive a definitive reply within four weeks. If this is not possible because for example, an investigation has not been fully completed, a progress report should be sent with an indication of when a full reply will be given.

Whether the complaint is upheld or not, the reply to the complainant should describe the action taken to investigate the complaint, the conclusions from the investigation, and any action taken as a result of the complaint.

The decision taken at this stage is final, unless the Board decides it is appropriate to seek external assistance with resolution.

The complainant can complain to the Charity Commission at any stage.

Information about the kind of complaints the Commission can involve itself in can be found on their website at: www.charitycommission.gov.uk/publications/cc47.aspx
